Consent Form

The interviews and focus groups will take place between now and April. I don't anticipate that there are any risks associated with your participation, but you have the right to withdraw from the research at any time, for any reason.

Thank you for agreeing to participate in the research project. Ethical procedures for academic research require that interviewees explicitly agree to participate and to how the information we generate will be used. This consent form is necessary for me to ensure that you understand the purpose of your involvement and that you agree to the conditions of your participation.

Please refer to the Powerpoint presentation I gave during your last online training session and have sent to you to understand the purpose of the research. As stated, all activities will be discussed and agreed with you in advance.

Please sign and send me a photo of this form to certify that you approve the following:

- interviews and focus groups will be recorded and in some cases a transcript will be produced
- you are welcome to see any recordings or transcripts and ask for any information to be withdrawn or changed if it is factually inaccurate
- the recordings and transcripts of the interview will be analysed by Damian Ross as the coordinator of this research
- access to the recordings and transcripts will be limited to Damian Ross and academic colleagues and researchers with whom he might collaborate as part of the research process
- any summary interview content, or direct quotations from the interview, that are made available through academic publication or other academic outlets will be anonymized so that you cannot be identified, and care will be taken to ensure that other information in the interview that could identify yourself is not revealed
- if recordings are to be used for any purpose (such as presentations of findings), this will be with your consent. If they are not needed for this purpose, or you do not consent to their use in this way, they will be destroyed.
- any variation of the conditions above will only occur with your further explicit approval

I have read and understood the above:
