

E-View Building a European Virtual Environment for Work-based Learning

E-VIEW: VIRTUAL CAMPUS WBL MODEL FOR MANAGEMENT COMPETENCES

Alfredo Soeiro, Universidade Porto
IADIS e-Learning 2012, Lisboa, July 2012

E-VIEW is funded with support from the European Commission

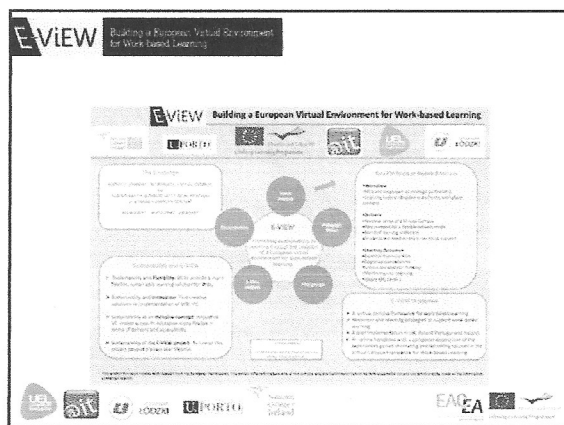

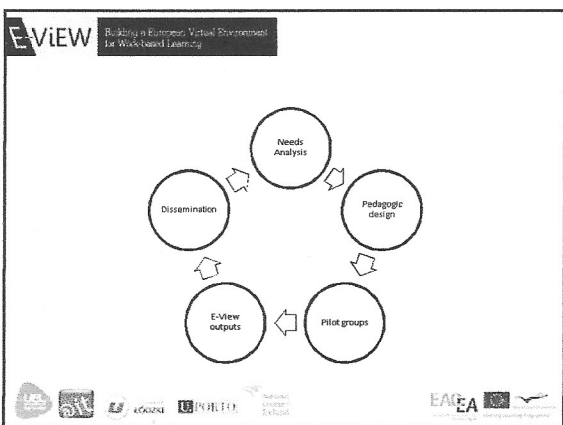

E-View Building a European Virtual Environment for Work-based Learning

E-VIEW

Building a European Virtual Environment for Work-based Learning

E-VIEW is funded with support from the European Commission

E-View Building a European Virtual Environment for Work-based Learning

User needs analysis

Involvement of all stakeholders

- Significant variations in delivery of WBL
- Working definition Virtual Campus
- Authentic (e-)learning
- Umbrella technological platform

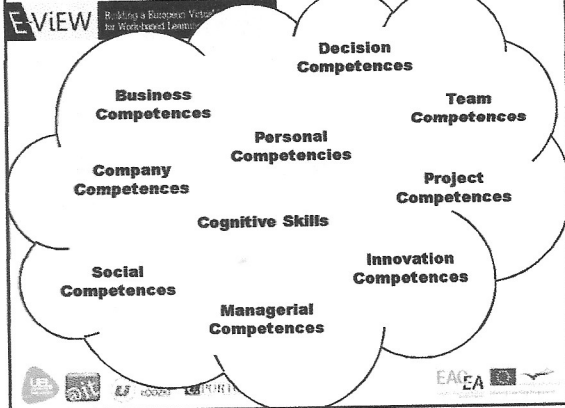

E-View Building a European Virtual Environment for Work-based Learning

Virtual Campus working definition

The space where we learn that is beyond the boundaries of space, time and the physical institution.

Pedagogy Learning model
Competencies
Expert support team

- Social, personal and team
- Business, company and project
- Cognitive, managerial, decision, innovation

Develop a Signature Pedagogy for Business Education

- 5 steps approach
- Problem solving, embedded learning, contextualised
- Feedback
- Group learning (before, during and after)
- Support
- Learning contract scheme!
- Relevant tasks – Authenticity!
- Balance content – social

Design for Learning

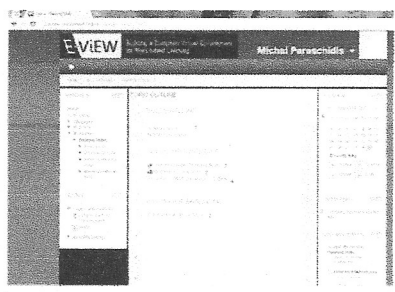

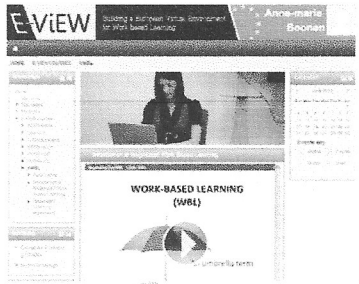

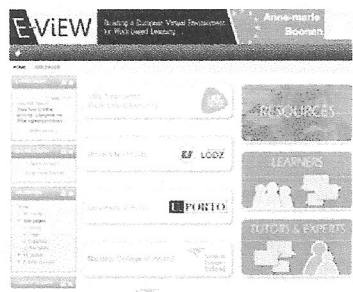

Learning events

Assessment strategies

Technical configuration

Virtual Platform

International Pilot activities

Aspects of the Virtual Campus

- ICT
- Organisational issues
- Student/Staff
- EU dimension
- Economic issues

Overall recommendations

- Make no assumptions!
- Finding a good methodology for the working place
- It should be a meaningful experience for the learner
- Constant feedback on decision making process
- Should be an experience on the culture of management

Thank you!

avsoeiro@fe.up.pt

www.e-view-project.eu

<http://eview.uelconnect.org.uk/>