

Classroom, a teenage view

Je dormais sur les feuilles de cours.

N'ai rêté

est vide. Ah que j'étais en (c)

les cours de Acchro!

During the pandemic we learned at home.

It was kind of hard to listen for 6 or 9 hours to one person because we couldn't just take out a mobile phone and write an email or something like that. So, we had to go through the entire lesson and listen. And this was hard.

Now you come to school at 8:00 and go at 16:00 or something, but at home it was like it started at 8:00 and until 16:00. But after 16:00 you had so much homework, so much learning... It was like 20:00 in the afternoon and it was like, "Oh, my day is over and tomorrow I need to go to school again!"
