- Top Screenshot: A YouTube video player for 'Get Connected 2011'. The video shows a person in a dark, possibly outdoor setting. The sidebar on the right lists other videos like 'Get Connected hotline audio', 'Waiting Room', 'Numb', 'The Making of Nobody's Perfect', and 'Island People Experience'.
- Middle Screenshot: The 'Get Connected' website homepage. It features a navigation bar with links like 'GET HELP', 'HOME', 'PRESS', 'BLOG', 'ALOL', and 'HELP US'. Below this, there are social media links for Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube. The main content area includes a 'Join Daniel Radcliffe' section, a 'Volunteer' section, and a 'Take part in an overseas trek' section. A 'DONATE' button is visible on the right.
- Bottom Screenshot: The 'Get Connected' Facebook page. It shows the profile picture, cover photo, and a list of likes. The page has 799 likes and 3 talking about this. The 'About' section describes the charity as a non-profit organization that provides confidential support and signposting services.

You've Got a Friend

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Not to be confused with You've Got a Friend in Me.

"You've Got a Friend" is a song from 1971, originally written and performed by Carole King. It was included in her album Tapestry of 1971, but was made famous by James Taylor's cover version the same year. Taylor's rendition, released as a single from his own 1971 album Mud Slide Slim and the Blue Horizon, reached number 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 and number 4 on the UK Singles Chart. The James Taylor version also spent one week at the top of the Easy Listening charts.^[1] "You've Got a Friend" won Grammy Awards both for Taylor (Best Male Pop Vocal Performance) and King (Song of the Year). Joni Mitchell sings harmony.

The song was recorded also during 1971 by Dusty Springfield, a recording that predates Taylor's version. It was recorded for her third album for Atlantic Records, but a dispute with the company meant the album was unreleased. The song was left unissued until 1999, when it was issued as a bonus track for the Rhino Records deluxe re-release of Dusty in Memphis.

Another live version was recorded by Donny Hathaway on his 1972 Live album and the posthumously released These Songs for You, Live!.

Barry Manilow performs the song along with Melissa Manchester on his album Duets. Japanese singer-songwriter, Onitsuka Chihiro performed the song during her 2008 tour and it also appears in her live DVD "Nine Dirts and Snow White Flickers".

Social Media

- Due to the Internet, the way that people get information has changed dramatically over the past twenty years.
- The Internet has undergone a change as a result of the rising popularity of “Web 2.0” sites, which include online forums and social media sites.
- They facilitate communication between Internet users. Instead of presenting original content to users, these sites depend on the users to provide the content.

Writing on Social Media

- The advent of social media has opened up a wide range of opportunities for non-professional writers to write online.
- Discussion boards dissolve the barrier between writer and reader, creating a more informal and interactive writing environment.

It would be wonderful to be able to help the whole world, but it's more important to love those around us. If we all did this, our love would reach the rest of humanity by extension. Thanks for posting this song.

James Taylor and his music only get better and better as the years slide by. This is perfection in every sense of the word...begin with the intimate, personal feel of just a singer, a guitar, and that sweet bass. Bring in those lead guitar licks...introduce percussion to intensify the mood...blend in the background vocals; and just when you think "complete"... in comes this beautiful piano. And soaring through and above it all, that golden James Taylor voice...can it get any better than this?
